

Summer Therapeutic Activities Program (STAP) Children Up to 21 years-
Therapeutic Camp over the summer when school is not in session. The camp includes treatment focused activities for up to six weeks during the summer months. Program specifics vary based on the program description of each provider.