

Oct 18th - Fall Leaf Candleholder & Hike

There's a little nip in the air and the leaves are falling. It's perfect weather for a fall leaf walk and we have a lovely location for leaf peeping. Afterwards we'll use dried leaves and school glue to make a whimsical fall leaf candle holder. 10:00 am – 12 noon

Nov 1st - Whoooo's at Trexler?

Meet our owls and learn why they have become such a symbol for Halloween. Then join us on a short twilight hike while we try to call some owls in from the wild! 6-7:30pm

Nov. 15th - Wood & Burlap Natural Fall Wreath

Help collect natural materials on a short hike and then create this beautiful wreath to gift or keep for yourself! Perfect for all ages. 10 am-12 noon

Nov. 29th - Hike for Hibernation!

Meet some of our education animals who hibernate and learn about who really does sleep all winter. Then dress for a “Hibernation Hike” where we will search for a site that will protect your homemade animal from freezing. 10 am-12 noon

Dec. 13th - Ornaments for All! Let's go outside and collect some materials to create ornaments for everybody. Adults, kids, and wildlife! We will supplement the activities with supplies as well. 10 am-12 noon

Dec. 27th - Winter Tree and Animal Track I.D. Hike

Join forester Tim Latz and expert tracker Christine Murray on the 2 mile long Teardrop Trail. We will learn how to identify trees at the toughest time of year and discover how animal tracks create a story. Dress warmly and enjoy hot chocolate post hike! 10 am-12 noon
